

Welcome to Eta Kappa Nu (HKN) Information Night

IEEE

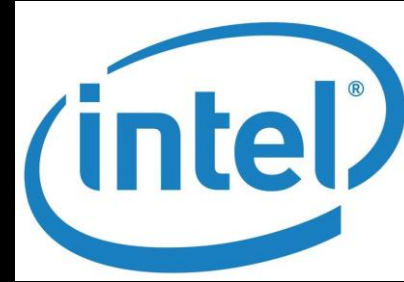

What is HKN?

- Eta Kappa Nu (HKN) is the international honor society of the IEEE
- HKN was founded at the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign in 1904 by Maurice Carr
- Penn State's Epsilon Chapter was shortly after on December 4, 1909
- Merged with IEEE in 2010 to become IEEE-Eta Kappa Nu
- 240 chapters at universities across the world
- Over 300,000 members today
- Recognized around the globe as the one honor society that represents the highest values of our profession.

Prominent HKN Members

- Larry Page and Eric Schmidt, founders of Google
- David Filo, founder of Yahoo!
- Steve Wozniak, co-founder of Apple Computers
- Gordon Moore, co-founder of Intel, Inventor of 'Moore's Law'
- Irwin and Paul Jacobs, founders of Qualcomm
- Amar Bose, Inventor, Founder, and chairman of Bose

Who's in HKN?

Academic Qualifications:

- Top 25% of Juniors in EECS
- Top 33% of Seniors in EECS

Character: An individual must be of exceptional character demonstrating such character to their peers.

Attitude: An individual must have the proper attitude to work hard, continually challenging himself/herself, willing to help others, and to use their talents and superior skills in service to their university, department and peers.

Why Join?

- IEEE-Eta Kappa Nu (IEEE-HKN), the honor society of IEEE, is dedicated to encouraging and recognizing individual excellence in education and meritorious work, in professional practice, and in any of the areas within the IEEE-designated fields of interest.
- Employers around the world recognize the designation of HKN and understand that IEEE-HKN members are of the best candidates and are well-rounded, articulate, and community minded.
- Interact with your department's faculty and major companies on a personal basis.
- Network with the top students at your school and other major universities.
- We assist our members through tutoring, exam preparation, peer mentoring, technical competitions, and to the community at large.
- We make sure that are members are prepared for the upcoming career fair come the fall/spring, by having as much company involvement as possible. We are here to make sure you are prepared!
- Have the resources to have an idea and bring it to fruition.

Our Chapter

President: Shaurya Rastogi, sqr5328@psu.edu

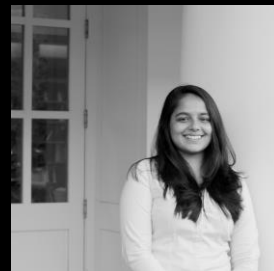

Vice President: Anisha Humbe, avh5441@psu.edu

Tutoring Chair: Jake Covey, jac6294@psu.edu

Treasurer: John DiDonato, jmd6054@psu.edu

Webmaster: Ecenaz Asku, eva5130@psu.edu

Our Advisor: Dr. Kane

Getting Involved

Getting involved in HKN:

Corporate Involvement – Help in the planning and execution of events with recruiters

Outreach Involvement – Plan events with AWC and IEEE to promote education in engineering

Treasurer involvement – Work with the HUB to coordinate finances for the society

Web involvement – Design and maintain our website, entirely re-written in HTML5

Tutoring – Tutor EE undergrads in core courses and help affirm your education along with others

Our Activities:

Tutoring

Review Sessions

Coffee Socials

Tech Workshops

Information Sessions

Educational Videos

What you need to do next

Pledge Book Signatures

Initiation Fee - $70

- $60 IEEE-HKN Nationals
- $10 Epsilon Chapter